

DEC 17 1961

TACOMA, WASH.
NEWS-TRIBUNE

EVENING 86,236
SUNDAY 79,150

FOIAb3b

Business Briefs

Comings, Goings, Promotions and Developments in the Local Business World

ON SAVINGS AND LOAN LEAGUE PANEL

Robert K. Danhauser, president of the State Savings and Loan Association, was one of five executives from over the nation to conduct a "shop talk panel" before the national convention of the U.S. Savings and Loan League in Chicago. He is also a director of the state league, which maintains headquarters in Tacoma, under Kingston S. Lister, executive vice president.

TACOMAN ATTENDS MEETING IN BISMARCK

Paul M. Harwick, general agent for Provident Life Insurance Co., is attending a meeting which began yesterday and continues through Tuesday at the company's home office in Bismark, N.D. The meeting is for Washington State general agents. Harwick has been appointed to the Committee for Aging of the National Association of Life Underwriters for 1962.

STOWELL TAKES PART IN CONSULTING BOARD

Lee Stowell of Stowell's Prescription Pharmacy, a member of the Lederle Pharmacy Consulting Board, took part in the board's annual meeting, where the need for better communication to the public on quality control measures used in pharmaceutical production was discussed. On his visit he toured Lederle's 600-acre plant at Pearl River, N.Y.

ALLEN TO SUCCEED SERVEY AS BRANCH MANAGER

Mark J. Servey, manager of United Pacific Insurance Group's

M. J. Servey

Tacoma branch office, will retire Dec. 31 after 31 years with the company and 16 years as branch manager here. Arthur A. Allen, CPCU, assistant manager, will succeed Servey. Harold L. Baird, president, announced. Allen, a native Tacoman and a graduate of Stanford University, was associated with his father in an insurance agency for three years until 1953, when he joined United Pacific.

A. A. Allen

EX-TACOMAN WINS ADVERTISING POST

Richard W. Loren, a native Tacoman, has been named assistant advertising manager for Fairchild Semiconductor of Mountain View, Calif. He is a graduate of Washington State University and was television director for KTVW here in 1954. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Loren, 2719 N. 29th St.

OLYMPIA MAN COMPLETES TRAINING COURSE

Charles Maddox of Olympia is one of 12 district representatives of the Aid Association for Lutherans who recently completed the course of study at the sales training school at the association's home office in Appleton, Wis.

PADGETT STUDIES MANAGEMENT AT HARVARD

Harold E. Padgett, 1510 N. Mason Ave., deputy director for administration, Central Intelligence Agency, is one of 64 men who received certificates of graduation yesterday at ceremonies concluding the 16-week program for management development at Harvard Business School.

CONSTANTINE PASSES EMPLOYMENT COUNSELING EXAM

Edward L. Constantine, owner of Personnel Placement Agency since 1960, has passed an extensive five hour examination given by the American Institute for Employment Counseling and has been awarded membership in the professional organization as a certified employment counselor. Constantine is a graduate of the University of Puget Sound and a 14-year veteran of the Marine Corps.

CPYRGHT

CPYRGHT

PENNEY'S MANAGER OBTAINS FILM

Howard Haley, manager for the J.C. Penney Co. store at Villa Plaza, has obtained a company safety film, "Stop and Go on a Bike," for permanent use by the Pierce County Instructional Materials Center in the county school superintendent's office. A. C. Theimer, director of the center, said the film will be circulated among county schools.

E. L. Constantine

DIAL FINANCE CO. PLACES NOTES

Dial Finance Co., which opened an office at 942 Pacific Ave. Sept. 25, has placed $7,500,000 senior notes and plans to place an additional $500,000 in January in a move to reduce short term debt and enable the company to further expand its small loan business. Dial Finance currently has 182 offices in 25 states.

ALASKA AIRLINES GETS CONTRACT

Alaska Airlines, Inc., has been awarded a $40,458 contract for transportation of military cargo and passengers in Alaska during November, December and January by Military Air Transport Service. Alaska Airlines was one of 15 airlines to receive contracts.